The View From Here

See special pricing below!
A full-throated group, a cross between Stan Rogers and the Clancy Brothers, establishing an oral story-telling tradition for the West Coast. - Vancouver Sun

A River So Wide

The latest CD from Tiller's Folly features a collection of great new tunes that are sure to become instant classics. Illustrious guests include John Cowan and Larry Knechtel. Available now. Order today!

A Minstrel in Moray

Just released! Tiller's vocalist Bruce Coughlan's latest solo recording. This is a fabulous new CD and a whole new direction for Bruce and Tiller's Folly. Coming soon to a show near you!

Buchan Bluegrass

Inspired by their first tour of Scotland, Tiller's Folly explore the relationship between North America's Bluegrass tradition and its roots in Scots ballads and fiddle music.

Off The Beaten Path

Tiller's Folly fiddler Nolan Murray's fourth solo CD. Enjoy original and classic acoustic selections that display his amazing prowess on fiddle, mandolin, guitar and banjo.

Stirring Up Ghosts

"Stirring Up Ghosts" is a happy marriage of solid, fascinating content with exceptional, world class musicianship. It is more than history, more than entertainment, more than great songs with well written documentation; this project is an example of how inspiring and listenable good art can be, while still maintaining its integrity and power. - Tom May NPR's River City Folk

A Fine Kettle of Fish

A fine kettle of fish indeed! Tiller's Folly raises the rafters in their live DVD/CD. Filmed and recorded in 2004 at a historic fish cannery in British Columbia, Tiller's Folly perform selections from their four CDs. Stories, songs, fabulous fiddle, Irish dancers, multimedia and more. A great gift item!
